

PORTFOLIO ADVISORS, INC.

INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENT

We appreciate the opportunity to provide you with investment advisory services and we look forward to being of assistance. This Agreement is entered into by Portfolio Advisors, Inc. (Advisor) and _____ (Client). In consideration of the mutual benefits to be derived from this Agreement, it is understood and agreed as follows:

SERVICES: Based upon information the Client agrees to furnish, Portfolio Advisors, Inc. will provide the following:

Investment Management Service:

- We will discuss and gather information pertaining to the Client's current financial matters in an effort to determine the Client's needs, goals and objectives, time horizon and risk tolerance
- Portfolio Advisors, Inc. will develop an individualized investment policy and a strategy that includes analysis, specific recommendations, asset allocation and assistance with implementation, if desired
- Portfolio Advisors, Inc. will have limited power of attorney to execute securities transactions on the Client's behalf and to provide non-discretionary recommendations on allocations to third-party investment managers, each within the Client's pre-approved investment parameters. With respect to allocations to third-party investment managers, Portfolio Advisors, Inc. will generally be responsible for determining the suitability of the third-party investment manager and their underlying investment models and strategies, while the third-party investment manager is responsible for managing their models and strategies pursuant to each of their respective investment mandates (subject to any customizations agreed upon by the Client and third-party investment manager)
- Once the Client's investment strategy is implemented, we will provide ongoing management of the Client's portfolio assets and/or third-party manager allocations (if any). We will generally conduct internal portfolio reviews on a monthly basis. However, reviews may occur more or less often, depending upon the underlying assets of the Client's portfolio and the Client's personal circumstances
- The investment management services provided by Portfolio Advisors, Inc. under this Agreement are provided on a non-discretionary basis. Client assets allocated to third-party investment managers, to the extent applicable, are generally managed on a fully discretionary basis by the engaged third-party investment manager. Please see the Trading Authorization section of this Agreement for further information
- If deemed to be appropriate, we may help the Client select other professionals as may be desired in an effort to implement recommendations
- The investment management services provided by Portfolio Advisors, Inc. can be applied to Client assets that are not maintained with Portfolio Advisors, Inc.'s primary qualified custodian ("held-away assets"), such as participant directed retirement plan accounts and qualified tuition plan accounts (e.g., 529 plan accounts). With respect to held-away assets placed under the firm's management, Portfolio Advisors, Inc.'s services will generally be limited to the set menu of investment options made available to the held-away account
- Quarterly reports are provided detailing the portfolio status
- Quarterly electronic reports will be provided to the Client through our encrypted client portal
- We provide a tabbed binder serving as an organizational system for reports and correspondence

Financial Planning and Consulting Services:

- The services to be provided by Portfolio Advisors, Inc. under this Agreement include financial planning and/or consultation services to the extent such services are specifically requested by the Client. In the event that the Client requires extraordinary planning and/or consultation services (to be determined in the sole discretion of Portfolio Advisors, Inc.), Portfolio Advisors, Inc. may determine to charge for such additional services, the dollar amount of which shall be set forth in a separate written notice to the Client.

- The specific initial financial planning and/or consulting services requested by the Client shall be identified on the enclosed Schedule "A." Portfolio Advisors, Inc. shall also remain reasonably available to address Client's questions regarding certain investment- and non-investment-related matters during the term of this Agreement. After the completion of the services designated on Schedule "A," any future financial planning and consulting services will be provided at the request of Client, and the scope of such future services shall be agreed upon in writing between Portfolio Advisors, Inc. and the Client.
- With respect to Portfolio Advisors, Inc.'s planning and consulting services, the Client acknowledges that:
 - Client is free at all times to accept or reject any recommendation from Portfolio Advisors, Inc., and the Client acknowledges that it has the sole authority with regard to the implementation, acceptance, or rejection of any recommendation or advice from Portfolio Advisors, Inc.;
 - Recommendations (i.e. estate planning, retirement planning, taxes, insurance, etc.) may be discussed and/or implemented, at Client's sole discretion, with the corresponding professional adviser(s) (i.e. broker, accountant, attorney, insurance agent, etc.) of Client's choosing;
 - In respect to estate planning and tax planning matters, Portfolio Advisors, Inc.'s role shall be that of a facilitator between the Client and his/her corresponding professional advisor(s);
 - No portion of Portfolio Advisors, Inc.'s services should be construed as legal or accounting advice. Rather, the Client should defer to its attorney or accountant; and
 - Client will maintain sole responsibility to notify Portfolio Advisors, Inc. if there is a change in its financial situation or investment objective(s) for the purpose of reviewing/evaluating/revising Portfolio Advisors, Inc.'s previous recommendations and/or services and/or to address new planning or consulting matters.

Portfolio Advisors, Inc. believes that it is important for the Client to address financial planning issues with Portfolio Advisors, Inc. on an ongoing basis. Portfolio Advisors, Inc.'s fee for services under this Agreement shall remain the same regardless of whether or not the Client determines to address planning issues with Portfolio Advisors, Inc.

Furthermore, Portfolio Advisors, Inc. does not provide custody of assets or securities, tax advice or accounting services. We will not provide legal advice or prepare any legal documents for the implementation of your investment plan. We will, however, coordinate our efforts with your tax and legal professionals as you deem appropriate. The Client understands the Client's responsibility to secure the assistance of the Client's personal accountant or legal counsel when the need for such services arises.

Portfolio Advisors, Inc.'s services and recommendations are based upon the portfolio assets as displayed on the Model Portfolio Report. Unless otherwise agreed, in writing, other assets the Client may have are not supervised under this advisory agreement.

CLIENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

Client recognizes that the value and usefulness of the advisory services provided by Portfolio Advisors, Inc. will be dependent upon information the Client provides and upon the Client's active participation in the formulation of investment objectives. Client agrees to:

- Provide detailed information and copies of documents (such as existing account statements) as Portfolio Advisors, Inc. may request in order to permit complete evaluation of the Client's investment situation
- Notify Portfolio Advisor, Inc. promptly of any changes in the Client's personal or financial situation

CLIENT AUTHORITY:

If our Client is not a natural person, you, as an authorized individual, represent and confirm that the engagement of the Adviser pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, is authorized by the governing documents relating to the Client and that the terms of this Agreement do not violate any obligations by which the Client is bound. Client agrees to deliver all forms, corporate resolutions or similar documentation evidencing the undersigned's authority to execute and deliver this Agreement. Client also agrees to deliver such organizational documents and other documents as we may reasonably require. Client further agrees to promptly deliver all amendments or supplements to the foregoing documents, and agrees that Portfolio Advisors, Inc. is not liable for any losses, costs or claims suffered or arising out of your failure to provide us with any documents required to be furnished hereunder. Client warrants and represents that it owns all property deposited in the Account(s) and that no restriction on disposition exists to any such property.

OTHER AGREEMENTS:

Client acknowledges that nothing contained in this Agreement violates the terms and conditions of any other agreements to which the Client may be bound.

NON-EXCLUSIVE ADVISORY SERVICES:

It is understood that Portfolio Advisors, Inc. performs investment advisory services for various clients. Client agrees that we may give advice and take action with respect to any of our other clients that may differ from advice given to Client. Nothing in this Agreement shall limit or restrict Portfolio Advisors, Inc. from rendering investment advisory services to any other person or firm, or to engage in any other business activities so long as this Agreement or any extension, renewal or amendment hereof shall remain in effect, or until we may otherwise consent. Portfolio Advisors, Inc. will not have any obligation to recommend for purchase or sale, for the Portfolio, any security or other asset we may purchase, hold or sell for our own accounts or for the accounts of any other clients.

TERM:

Either party may terminate this Advisory Agreement anytime upon receipt of written notice. Termination will be effective as of the date written notice is received. Client may terminate this agreement within five (5) business days after entering the agreement and incur no management fees. Your death, disability or incompetency will not automatically terminate or change the terms of this agreement. However, your personal representative, guardian, attorney-in-fact, or other authorized representative may cancel this agreement by giving written notice to us. This allows our continued involvement on behalf of your heirs unless this agreement is cancelled as stated above.

COMPENSATION:

Fees for Investment Management Services are calculated as follows:

First $1,000,000 @ .25% per quarter (1.00% per year)
 Portion above $1,000,000 @ .125% per quarter (0.50% per year)
 Portion above $3,000,000 @ .0625% per quarter (0.25% per year)

Asset management fees are payable at the end of each calendar quarter based on the portfolio value as of the last business day of the quarter. Fees for partial quarters are calculated on a pro-rata basis.

Commencing with the fee period beginning January 1, 2025, the minimum annual fee is $3,500, payable in equal quarterly increments. The minimum annual fee is increased each year as of January 1 at a rate of 3.00% annually. Clients will be evaluated each quarter to determine whether they will be subject to Portfolio Advisors, Inc.'s minimum fee or the above asset-based fee schedule for the upcoming quarter. Portfolio Advisors, Inc. retains sole discretion for determining whether to waive or reduce its minimum fee for any fee period.

Portfolio Advisors, Inc. does not accept performance fees. The fees set forth are for financial analysis and Investment Management Services only and do not include any other professional services that may be required to implement the recommendations made by Portfolio Advisors, Inc.

If Client is subject to Portfolio Advisors, Inc.'s asset-based fee schedule and/or has assets allocated to a third-party investment manager: Client authorizes payment of fees by the custodian holding Client's funds and securities. This authorization extends to Portfolio Advisors, Inc., as well as any third-party investment manager engaged to manage some or all the Client's assets. Several criteria must be met when payment is made by the custodian: (1) The Client provides written authorization permitting the fees to be paid directly from the Client's account held by the independent custodian, and the authorization is limited to withdrawing contractually agreed upon investment advisor fees. (2) The Advisor must notify the Client, in writing, by at least first class mail, of the exact amount of the proposed withdrawal and the specific manner or basis on which the fee has been calculated, and such notice shall advise Client of the opportunity to object to the invoiced amount and the manner in which the objection shall be made. (3) The frequency of fee withdrawal shall be specified in the written authorization/agreement. (4) The custodian of the account shall be advised in writing of the limitation on the Advisor's access to the account. (5) The custodian agrees to send to the Client a statement, at least quarterly, indicating all amounts disbursed from the account including the amount of advisory fees paid directly to the Advisor. (6) Client shall be able to terminate the written billing authorization or agreement at any time. Payment of fees may be made directly by Client upon request. Client authorizes the sale of securities if there is insufficient cash for the debiting of management fees. Client acknowledges that taxable gains could result from such sales.

If Client is subject to Portfolio Advisors, Inc.'s minimum annual fee: Unless otherwise agreed, in writing, Client will be directly invoiced for services rendered during the fee period. Payment is due promptly upon receipt of Portfolio Advisors, Inc.'s invoice.

With respect to held-away accounts: Portfolio Advisors, Inc. will generally be unable to directly debit its fee from held-away accounts. As agreed upon between Portfolio Advisors, Inc. and the Client, Portfolio Advisors, Inc. will deduct fees attributable to held-away accounts from other, non-held-away accounts under the management of Portfolio Advisors, Inc. or will otherwise invoice the Client directly for held-away account fees.

Third-Party Investment Manager fees: The fees charged by any third-party investment manager engaged to manage Client assets are separate from and in addition to the fees charged by Portfolio Advisors, Inc. for its services hereunder. Third-party manager fees and fee payment timing and frequency may differ from the practices employed by Portfolio Advisors, Inc. Each engaged third-party investment manager, to the extent applicable, will be responsible for calculating and directly deducting its own fee from the Client's account, based on its own valuation and calculation methodology. Client will be provided with disclosure information on each third-party investment manager's fee and compensation practices prior to or at the time Portfolio Advisors, Inc. recommends an initial allocation to such third-party investment manager.

TRADING AUTHORIZATION:

A Limited Power of Attorney (LPOA) is generally executed with the custodian(s) of Client assets. The LPOA does not provide Portfolio Advisors, Inc. with custody of Client securities. Portfolio Advisors, Inc. does not and will not have custody of Client funds or securities. The LPOA provides Portfolio Advisors, Inc. with the power to execute trades on the Client's behalf, and authorizes the custodian to deduct management fees from Client's account upon direction from Portfolio Advisors, Inc. Generally, Portfolio Advisors, Inc. will recommend a particular broker to execute securities transactions. Client, however, retains authority to direct trades to other brokers. Portfolio Advisors, Inc. will not exercise discretionary control over any of Client's assets. Portfolio Advisors, Inc. shall be responsible only to make investment recommendations to Client and to execute investment transactions after obtaining Client's approval. Client will retain absolute discretion over all investment decisions.

Once an asset allocation is agreed upon for the portfolio, a Model Portfolio is developed which identifies specific target percentages for each asset. If the actual percentages diverge from the target percentages, Client authorizes Portfolio Advisors, Inc. to buy and/or sell securities to rebalance the portfolio closer to the targets. If Client requests a cash withdrawal, Client authorizes Portfolio Advisors, Inc. to sell assets, if necessary, to meet the cash needs. Certain asset sales could result in taxable gains. Portfolio Advisors, Inc. will consult with Client prior to any sale that might result in significant capital gains. Client authorizes Portfolio Advisors, Inc. to invest cash deposits made to Client accounts in order to move the portfolio closer to the target percentages.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, third-party investment managers engaged for the management of Client assets will generally provide their services on a fully discretionary basis. Portfolio Advisors, Inc. will generally be responsible for recommending and monitoring the third-party investment manager, and for recommending allocations and re-allocations amongst the third-party investment manager's models and strategies, while the third-party investment manager is responsible for managing Client assets that have been allocated to it, in accordance with each model or strategy's respective mandates (subject to customizations agreed upon between Client and the third-party investment manager). Accordingly, Client authorizes any such third-party investment manager to buy, sell, or otherwise effect investment transactions involving Client assets allocated to the third-party investment manager, in the Client's name and for the Client's account, without prior consultation with or approval from the Client.

Account custodians will debit Client accounts for various trading expenses, including brokerage commissions, margin interest, custodial fees, and bank or brokerage service fees, as applicable. No portion of such fees is received by Portfolio Advisors, Inc. or by its principals or its Advisory Representatives.

CONFIDENTIALITY:

All information you may furnish to Portfolio Advisors, Inc., including the Firm's Associated Persons, and all information and advice we provide the Client, shall be treated as confidential and shall not be disclosed to third parties, except as indicated in Portfolio Advisors, Inc.'s Privacy Notice or as otherwise authorized by the Client.
